

Meet Nathan Harpine

Calvary's new Community and Communications Intern

Nathan is a graduate of the University of Mary Washington (UMW), where he earned a bachelor's degree in History and Political Science. During his time at UMW, he was an active member of the Episcopal/Lutheran Campus Ministry and the Tabletop game club.

Nathan is currently serving as an Intern at Calvary Episcopal Church and has previously worked as the Young Priests Initiative Intern at Saint Alban's Episcopal Church in , on Paint Crew at UMW, and as a Cave Tour Guide. He came to Brandon's Crossing and Calvary to explore how he is called to serve and to meet new people. Nathan is from Fairfax, Virginia and enjoys reading and making bad jokes.