Presider    Let us pray.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Almighty God, you have built your Church upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief cornerstone: Grant us so to be joined together in unity of spirit by their teaching, that we may be made a holy temple acceptable to you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The people sit.

READING 2 Samuel 1:1, 17-27

Read by Sharon Grayton

After the death of Saul, when David had returned from defeating the Amalekites, David remained two days in Ziklag. David intoned this lamentation over Saul and his son Jonathan. (He ordered that The Song of the Bow be taught to the people of Judah; it is written in the Book of Jashar.) He said:

Your glory, O Israel, lies slain upon your high places!

How the mighty have fallen! Tell it not in Gath, proclaim it not in the streets of Ashkelon; or the daughters of the Philistines will rejoice, the daughters of the uncircumcised will exult.

You mountains of Gilboa, let there be no dew or rain upon you, nor bounteous fields! For there the shield of the mighty was defiled, the shield of Saul, anointed with oil no more.

From the blood of the slain, from the fat of the mighty, the bow of Jonathan did not turn back, nor the sword of Saul return empty.

Saul and Jonathan, beloved and lovely! In life and in death they were not divided; they were swifter than eagles, they were stronger than lions.

O daughters of Israel, weep over Saul, who clothed you with crimson, in luxury, who put ornaments of gold on your apparel.

How the mighty have fallen in the midst of the battle!

Jonathan lies slain upon your high places. I am distressed for you, my brother Jonathan; greatly beloved were you to me; your love to me was wonderful, passing the love of women.

How the mighty have fallen, and the weapons of war perished!

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

The Congregation, remaining seated, sings the Antiphon before the psalm, and when indicated.

Psalm 130 (chanted by cantor)

Anglican Chant and Antiphon by Howard Helvey (b. 1968)

My soul waits for the Lord.

1 Out of the depths have I called to you, O Lord; Lord, hear my voice; let your ears consider well the voice of my supplication.

2 If you, Lord, were to note what is done amiss, O Lord, who could stand?

3 For there is forgiveness with you; therefore you shall be feared. ANTIPHON

4 I wait for the Lord; my soul waits for him; in his word is my hope.

5 My soul waits for the Lord, more than watchmen for the morning, more than watchmen for the morning. ANTIPHON

6 O Israel, wait for the Lord, for with the Lord there is mercy;

7 With him there is plenteous redemption, and he shall redeem Israel from all their sins. ANTIPHON

Please stand if you are able.

THE HOLY GOSPEL: MARK 5:21-43

The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a great crowd gathered around him; and he was by the sea. Then one of the leaders of the synagogue named Jairus came and, when he saw him, fell at his feet and begged him repeatedly, "My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay your hands on her, so that she may be made well, and live." So he went with him.

And a large crowd followed him and pressed in on him. Now there was a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years. She had endured much under many physicians, and had spent all that she had; and she was no better, but rather grew worse. She had heard about Jesus, and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak, for she said, "If I but touch his clothes, I will be made well." Immediately her hemorrhage stopped; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease. Immediately aware that power had gone forth from him, Jesus turned about in the crowd and said, "Who touched my clothes?" And his disciples said to him, "You see the crowd pressing in on you; how can you say, 'Who touched me?'" He looked all around to see who had done it. But the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came in fear and trembling, fell down before him, and told him the whole truth. He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your disease."

While he was still speaking, some people came from the leader's house to say, "Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the teacher any further?" But overhearing what they said, Jesus said to the leader of the synagogue, "Do not fear, only believe." He allowed no one to follow him except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James. When they came to the house of the leader of the synagogue, he saw a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. When he had entered, he said to them, "Why do you make a commotion and weep? The child is not dead but sleeping." And they laughed at him. Then he put them all outside, and took the child's father and mother and those who were with him, and went in where the child was. He took her by the hand and said to her, "Talitha cum," which means, "Little girl, get up!" And immediately the girl got up and began to walk about (she was twelve years of age).

At this they were overcome with amazement. He strictly ordered them that no one should know this, and told them to give her something to eat.

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Christ

SEQUENCE HYMN (LEVAS) 137 (4-6) Just as I am (See previous page)

Please be seated.

THE SERMON

A time of silence follows the Sermon.

The Reverend Olivia Hamilton

Please stand as you are able.

THE NICENE CREED said by all

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Read by Bob Smith

We gather as creatures fashioned by the life-giving hand of God. Confident in God's love for us, we pray, saying, "O God, hear our prayer."

You fashioned a world abundant with life and life-giving creatures. Inspire us to fashion with you a world that promotes fullness of life for all peoples. For this we pray:

O God, hear our prayer.

As Jesus compassionately responded to Jairus' need, help us to be Jesus' hands and feet, heeding the hungry, the homeless, the unemployed, and the elderly in our midst. For this we pray:

O God, hear our prayer.

As the earth nourishes and sustains us, may we nourish and sustain one another in justice and peace. We pray:

O God, hear our prayer.

Help us to release our tight-fisted grasp on the things of this world, that we might rather humbly collaborate with our neighbors to realize beloved community. We pray:

O God, hear our prayer.

We are made in your image, O God, and find ourselves in need of your grace. Help us to hold up each other as mirror of your life, recognizing that we are all broken saints and redeemed sinners.

For this we pray:

O God, hear our prayer.

We hover in anticipation of your healing presence, generous God. We pray for all who are ill, especially those on our parish prayer list... For whom do you pray? Prayers offered silently or aloud.
Empower us all to wait and trust. For this we pray:
O God, hear our prayer.

The Presider concludes

Gracious God, often we resist your gentle and compassionate hand in our lives. Open our hearts to your life-giving touch, and may we trust the growth of your dominion in the world. We do this through Jesus Christ, who is our life and our hope. Amen.

Confession

Presider Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.
Silence may be kept. People may stand or kneel.

Presider and People

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Presider, stands and says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

THE PEACE

Presider The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

The people greet one by waving or sharing the peace sign with one another in the name of the Lord.

The Presider makes announcements regarding the mission and common life of the parish congregation.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

Offertory The People bring up the bread and wine, and the Lord's Table is set.

OFFERTORY MUSIC Lord, make me an instrument of thy peace Music: Howard Helvey (b. 1968)
Words: based on a prayer attributed to Francis of Assisi (1182-1226)

Lord, make me an instrument of thy peace,
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is anguish, hope;
Where there is darkness, light;
Where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master,
Grant that I may not so much seek
To be consoled as to console;
To be understood as to understand;
To be loved as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive;
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

EUCARISTIC PRAYER ~ ENRICHING OUR WORSHIP 1

SURSUM CORDA ('82) S-120

Celebrant People
The Lord be with you. And al - so with you.
Celebrant People
Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People
It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Presider

It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy. You have filled us and all creation with your blessing and fed us with your constant love; you have redeemed us in Jesus Christ and knit us into one body. Through your Spirit you replenish us and call us to fullness of life.

Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we sing:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly      Lord, God      of pow-er and might,      hea - ven and earth are      full of your glo - ry.      Ho - san - na in the      high - est.      Bless - ed      is he who comes in the name of the Lord.      Ho - san - na in the      high - est.

Sanctus ('82) S-129

Setting: Robert Powell (b. 1932)

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.

But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.

Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ's Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray,

Presider and People

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD Presider breaks the consecrated bread. A period of silence follows.

FRACTION ANTHEM ('82) S-154

Setting: David Hurd (b. 1950)

This setting is not used in Lent.

Christ our Pass - o - ver is sac - ri - ficed for us;
there - fore let us keep the feast.
Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

The Presider invites the people to communion, saying

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

THE RECEIVING OF THE SACRAMENT

You are welcome to receive Holy Communion, the body of Our Lord. Please stay seated and the Usher will instruct you. The Priest will distribute Communion at both sides of the Nave (church).

Place your hands together to receive the bread. Gluten free wafers available upon request. If you would prefer to receive a blessing instead, cross your arms over your chest and the priest will bless you.

COMMUNION MUSIC

Improvisation

All stand as you are able.

POSTCOMMUNION PRAYER said by all

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

- Tender Mercies Ministry Update

For over a year now we have been delivering meals to Tender Mercies monthly and been unable to serve the clients personally. Beginning this month Tender Mercies is opening to food service. You may be thinking, "I am up for that!" We serve the dinner the last Sunday of the month at 5pm.

Food must be individually packaged, so we might need volunteers to assemble packages for 30-40 meals at the church late Sunday afternoon (3:30- 4:30pm) the last Sunday of the month. We would need 2-3 servers each month as well. (4:30 meet at the church - drive down to serve at 5pm).

If you may be interested in joining this outreach project during the months ahead, could you please contact me at my email and let me know? Maggiedavis6304@gmail.com

We will not be doing any cooking ourselves yet. Calvary is going to be taking one step at a time...Thank you all for everything you do to support Tender Mercies and our ministry as we resume outreach to our neighbors.

Best wishes, Maggie Davis
