

Network Partners:

Over the Christmas break there was a flurry of volunteering at Angel Interfaith Network by young people.

A youth group from Pacific Palisades Presbyterian Church assembled and delivered items for teens to Angel Interfaith Network.

A Council Member Elizabeth Gibbs-Zehnder's daughters, Naomi and Eva, came in a few days later to assist in sorting out the donations.

Then a third group from Ross Snyder, a nearby Parks and Rec program, came to help out. They delivered 8 bags of clothing, shoes and blankets.

Here is what one of the young volunteers wrote about their experience: "Volunteering at Angel Interfaith is so fulfilling because you get to put in work and directly see the impact of your work. It always opens my eyes to the reality of Los Angeles, the needs, and what I can do about it.

Volunteering here always leaves me with a smile and a hopeful heart"

The adults helped, too. LAC+USC's Rehabilitation Ortho team donated Ensure, adult underwear and gift cards for patients from their 3rd annual fundraiser.

Those We Serve:

Cindy, an 11-year-old patient, is recovering from cancer. Her father is a gardener and is out of work because of the rain. The family was behind in paying their utility bills. AIN was able to provide $100 towards the gas electric bills.

Urgent Needs:

Jackets for men (large – 3X) and men and women's athletic shoes (all sizes).

Become a Sustaining Angel:
<http://angelinterfaith.net/sustainers.html>