

This year, we really have to grow as a parish. Are you with me?

I am, as long as no one sits in my pew.

I am, as long as no one suggests any changes in the liturgy.

I am, as long as I still know everyone's name.

I am, as long as everyone knows my name.

I am, as long as I don't have to listen to noisy kids.

I think I better look for a new church!
