THE DAVID E. WEAVER IV MEMORIAL OUTREACH FUND APPLICATION

David E. Weaver (1974-2002) was member of Emmanuel Episcopal Church in LaGrange where he served as an acolyte and taught Sunday school. He was the son of long-time past Rector, David E. Weaver III and wife, Sally. David played football at LT, loved fishing, golfing, reading, and music. He had a kind heart, sense of humor, and passion for social justice. He was committed to empowering youth. He graduated from University of Florida, Miami, with his law degree in 2001. As an athlete, he shared his love for sports by coaching a youth basketball team before he passed away in 2002 in a tragic sporting accident.

After his death, the David E. Weaver IV Memorial Outreach Fund was established through generous donations of congregants, community members, and friends. The fund continues to grow as it honors David's memory and shares his legacy by enriching the lives of underserved youth in the Chicago land area.

The committee members of the David E. Weaver Memorial Outreach Fund invite you to apply. Projects with budgets between $100 - $1000 will be considered.

Please describe how the funds will impact youth. Provide a detailed budget.
