

Why didn't you let us know about the new service schedule?

Well, I announced it last Sunday and put it in the bulletin...

Well, you knew I was away last Sunday! My annual golf tourney.

We put it in the weekly email. You do get that, don't you?

I can't possibly be expected to read all the emails I get from Church!

Right! That's why we did the all-parish phonathon.

Oh, I stopped listening to my phone messages a while ago. It's only people asking for money.

I'm So Sorry. Let me start all over. Have you heard about our new service schedule?
