

Future Community Leaders Join TEAM's Board of Directors

TEAM welcomes new student board members from Charlotte High School.

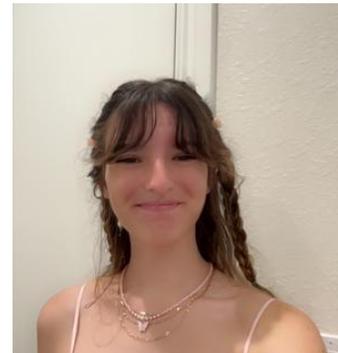

Aubrey Stchur (Class of '27)

Future leader Aubrey describes herself as “vibrantly energetic.” When not working studiously to maintain her National Honor Society status, she is participating in CHS clubs and athletics, earning rising star and leadership awards along the way. Aubrey volunteers in numerous capacities in the community and has completed the 2025 Emory University medicine and health care summer program.

Olivia Albert (Class of '26)

Future leader Olivia describes herself as “tenacious and knowledgeable, well versed in teamwork.” Dedicated to helping people “in any way I can.” She is a student in AICE law at Charlotte High School, is gaining proficiency in multiple languages, and recently completed the Lancaster Police Academy. Olivia has completed Honors Statistics, Honors Spanish and Advanced Placement Psychology.

Ava Deangelis (Class of '27)

Future leader Ava describes herself as a “motivated junior with a strong background in leadership, athletics and school involvement.” She is a varsity cheerleader for multiple teams; an experience she states has developed her time management capabilities as well as enhanced her confidence in communication and public speaking. The National Honor Society summer student government camp Ava recently attended “helped me reflect on different aspects of leadership and independence” lessons she was able to share with her fellow students.
