

ĤAĤA WAKPADAN COMMUNITY CELEBRATION

JUNE 4, 2022

{Ĥaĥa Wakpadan is the Dakota name for Bassett Creek.}

Join us for a day of celebration and education in Golden Valley!

Learn about the Ĥaĥa Wakpadan / Bassett Creek Oral History Project and celebrate the vibrant traditions of American Indian people who have been connected to the creek for thousands of years.

EVENT SCHEDULE

- | | |
|-----------------|--|
| 11:00 am | Welcome & Land Acknowledgement |
| 11:10 am | Native Drum and Dance Group: Spirit Boy
(Manido Gwiiwizens) |
| 11:30 am | Native Storytelling & Arts Activities |
| 12:30 pm | Project Presentation by Dr. Kasey Keeler |
| 1:45 pm | Closing Remarks |

11:00 AM
TO 2:00 PM

FOOD

- FREE Snacks and blueberry tea from Native Food Perspectives
- Wild rice wraps from Gatherings Café: veggie or turkey
{$5 suggested donation, cash or check}
 - Or bring a picnic lunch from home!

VALLEY COMMUNITY PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
3100 LILAC DR. N, GOLDEN VALLEY, MN 55422

This project was made possible in part by Valley Community Presbyterian Church, University of Wisconsin--Madison, Hennepin History Museum, Bassett Creek Watershed Management Commission, Speaking Out Collective, and the people of Minnesota through a Minnesota Arts and Cultural Heritage Fund grant.