

InSchool Music

InSchool Music

Now your child can take private lessons, during school hours, at times that are agreeable to parents, teachers and administrators. InSchool Music provides a doorway for your child to enter into deeper musicianship that can only be attained through one-on-one instruction.

PIANO & GUITAR LESSONS

The INSCHOOL MUSIC program can bring music into your child's life while accommodating your busy schedule at home. Sign up for piano or guitar lessons for the 2020-21 school year today!

NOTICE: ALL LESSONS WILL BE ONLINE UNTIL COVID 19 HAS PASSED.

Piano or Guitar Lessons during or after school hours: You will no longer have to drive your child during the dinner hour or evenings for lessons. The InSchool Music program, now in its 14th year, is a great augmentation of your school's fine arts curricula. We can work around your school schedule, whether full time or hybrid.

FOUNDER/Piano teacher: David Butler is the founder of InSchool Music, and head instructor with 37 years of teaching experience. He is also a composer of multiple styles of music. One of David's long-term students, JJ Wright, received two Grammy awards, and had his album reach #1 on the billboard charts in the classical music category in 2016. Two other students of David's, his son Patrick, and Philip Shore have been signed by Infine Records of Paris, and will premiere their 1st album this year as an electronic pop duo.

Guitar Teacher: Drew Azzinaro received his Bachelor of Music degree in Classical guitar from SUNY @ Fredonia. He has been teaching guitar for over 10 years, and several of his students have been accepted into conservatories.

The kids have a great time learning from both Drew and Dave! See website for instructors.
