Rev. MacDonald will address the times we are currently experiencing in the United Methodist Church and his experience with the “fluid times” that the Anglican Church experienced. There are common patterns that can help us discuss with one another our own unique perspectives and experience. His discussion will include “lessons learned” and how various issues “intersect” with one another.

Friday’s session will be geared to Clergy only. Saturday we will invite Laity to join us and continue the discussion as it relates to all. The event will consist of lecture(s), panels, and group conversations.

The Right Rev. Mark MacDonald became the Anglican Church of Canada’s first National Indigenous Anglican Bishop in 2007, after serving as bishop of the U.S. Episcopal Diocese of Alaska for 10 years. His formal education includes a B.A. in religious studies and psychology at the College of St. Scholastica in Duluth, Minn., an M.Div. from Wycliffe, and a D.Min. from the Church Divinity School of the Pacific. In 2019, now Bishop MacDonald was elevated to Archbishop.
