

Stewardship is hope and abundance.

2 Corinthians 9:6 — Remember this: the person who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and the person who sows generously will also reap generously.

Why do I give?

- To share God's grace
- To show our gratitude
- To help the church continue to work for others
- Giving helps me feel gratitude

How to give financial gifts

- Cash or check: mailed in or placed in the offering plate
- Venmo
- Online banking: visit the website and choose "Giving"
- Text to give
- Qualified charitable distributions from individual retirement accounts (IRAs)
- Legacy giving

How much do I give?

This is highly personal, and it is between you and God.

Here are some ideas on a pathway to giving.

Lead with love giving path

How our relationship with money guides us to lead with love in the world.

1

Exploring giver

Begin to give a certain amount regularly.

2

Growing giver

Plan what percentage of your income to give and sign up for online giving.

3

Intentional giver

Increase the percentage of your income, moving toward 10%.

4

Deepening giver

Begin to tithe, giving 10% of your income.

5

Extravagant giver

Step above and beyond the tithe.

Stewardship: It is more than fundraising. It is abundance.
