PRESS RELEASE

RECRUITMENT FOR PRESIDENT AND CEO POSITIONS

Nome, Alaska | August 29, 2019

Sitnasuak Native Corporation (SNC) is currently recruiting for President and Chief Executive Officer (CEO) positions to provide strategic and corporate leadership. Interested candidates are encouraged to contact Heather Spear-Morris, Vice-President of Human Resources, at (907) 929-7000 or via e-mail at hspear-morris@snc.org.

The President will serve as SNC's "ambassador" and, in cooperation with the Board Chair and CEO, represents SNC to Shareholders, fellow Alaska Native corporations, tribes and local, state and federal agencies. The President will oversee and monitor the implementation of corporate policies and directives.

The CEO is responsible for the business activities and strategic direction of subsidiaries and business affiliates. The CEO will oversee development of strategic business plans to execute growth strategies and direct oversight of sales, financial and budget processes, general business administration, and subsidiary operations.

SNC is a successful Alaska Native village corporation with four major subsidiaries: petroleum storage and distribution, tactical apparel products and technology services, title services and insurance, and real estate operations. SNC has corporate offices in both Nome and Anchorage, Alaska.

Interested candidates may apply for the positions online at www.snc.org.

About Sitnasuak Native Corporation

SNC is one of the Alaska Native village corporations created in 1971 under the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act (ANCSA). SNC is headquartered in Nome, Alaska, with operations in Alaska (Nome, Anchorage, Wasilla and Fairbanks), California, Virginia and Puerto Rico. Today, SNC is the largest of 16 village corporations in the Bering Straits region, with over $133 million in annual revenues. SNC is owned by almost 2,900 Alaska Native Shareholders.
