

Traveling to Anchorage for AFN?

Six years ago, Alaska Airlines created Club 49, a loyalty program just for our fliers in Alaska. Part of our industry-leading Mileage Plan™ program, this club is special, just like you, with benefits that make life in Alaska a little bit easier. And less expensive. The program itself is free to join, Alaskans have saved over $20 million last year by taking advantage of their Club 49 benefits.

Many of you may be Club 49 members already, and we thank you! Read on to be sure you're taking advantage of all your benefits, and if you're not a member, here are four great reasons to join today, plus a special low fare for travel to the 2018 AFN convention in Anchorage!

2 FREE BAGS* – In a time when other airlines are charging more and more, we give you 2 free bags for flights originating in or coming to Alaska and 3 free bags for in-state flights! Two or three 50-pound bags can carry a lot of household staples or local bounty in and out of villages and cities across the state.

TRAVEL NOW DISCOUNTS* - Sometimes, you just need to leave town. Fast. Your two, annual Travel Now certificates give you 30% off for travel within three days of departure for when those surprises happen, lessening the burden of a far-away family illness or sweetening the dream of a quick getaway to the sun. Use them as you wish - they are meant to ease the extra cost of life here in the Last Frontier.

WEEKLY FARE SALE* - The Club 49 Insider emails give you first notice of special low fares every Tuesday – just for Club 49 members. Destinations from Honolulu to Boston, Minneapolis to Austin, are featured with special prices from all our hubs. Also look for special promotions, like the PFD Sale and the Constituent Fare to Juneau.

FREIGHT FOR LESS* - Last year, we launched our newest, and arguably most compelling, Club 49 benefit yet – Freight for Less. Now, when you travel within Alaska, you can ship up to 100 lbs. of goods to your destination for only $10. And, even if you're staying put, you can ship up to 100 lbs. of goods within Alaska for $40.

15% OFF TRAVEL FOR AFN – That's right, you can fly to Anchorage for the AFN convention from any of our state hubs October 13 – 26, 2018 for 15% less. Use discount code ECMZ635 at alaskaair.com and select "Use discount code" for easy booking.

Alaska Airlines is committed to easing life in the Great Land with a smile, a warm welcome, and benefits just for Alaskans. See Alaskaair.com/club49 for program details and to sign up today.
