

Attorney General Authority & Cybersecurity Working Group
JW Marriott, Scottsdale, AZ
November 15, 2019

Tentative Agenda for Distribution

November 15, 2019

Location:

ATTORNEY GENERAL AUTHORITY 1:00pm – 3:00pm

State AGs have traditionally exercised their constitutional authority as chief legal officers to decide the appropriate time, place, and manner in which to litigate, halt misconduct and obtain relief for all the residents of their states. Increasingly, counties, cities and other municipalities are independently lending their names to lawsuits seeking separate relief for their citizens. Tens of thousands of opioid lawsuits filed by localities is a prime example, but localities are suing on their own over an ever-expanding range of subjects, such as energy, environmental, and pharmaceutical issues, as well as data privacy and breach cases. These lawsuits impact AG-led efforts to address serious and complex legal and policy issues and are a challenge to the historic role AGs hold in exercising the sovereign power of the state to safeguard public welfare, health and safety. Please join us for a conversation exploring this trend, diagnosing possible repercussions for AG powers and duties, and discussing potential steps to preserve AGs' unique authority.

- | | |
|----------------|---|
| 1:00 – 1:15 pm | Arizona “Lowest Possible Cost of Education” and AG Authority Attorney General Mark Brnovich, Arizona Terry Goddard, Arizona Attorney General 2003 – 2011 |
| 1:15 – 2:00 pm | AG Authority over Lawsuits Attorney General David Yost, Ohio (Invited) Ann M. Sherman Deputy Solicitor General, Michigan |
| 2:00 – 2:30 pm | Impact on AG Authority, Data, Environmental and Pharmaceutical Lawsuits Perry Zinn Rowthorne, Partner, Shipman and Goodwin LLP Chief Deputy Attorney General Connecticut, 2010-2018 |

Natalie Ludaway
Chief Deputy Attorney General, Washington DC

2:30 – 2:45 pm Weighing Benefits of Multi-Jurisdictional Lawsuits against AG Authority
TBA

2:45 – 3:00 pm Lessons from Tobacco and Legislative Suggestions for Attorneys General
Drew Ketterer, Attorney General Maine, 1995-2001

CYBERSECURITY 3:00pm – 5:00pm

3:00pm – 3:15pm Attorney General Perspective: AG responses to data, privacy and cyber events.

How are the policies and regulations surrounding events of this type viewed and handled within an Attorney General's Office?

3:15pm – 3:30pm Anti-Fraud Solutions and Data Privacy
Michael C. Lamb, Chief Privacy Officer, RELX Group

Discussing how corporations and businesses use data to combat fraud, stop crime before it occurs, and apprehend criminals - and from the cybersecurity perspective how data and solutions in the marketplace assist consumers and businesses with their privacy and anti-identity theft efforts.

3:15pm – 3:30pm Securing the Cloud
Garrett Kolb, Managed Applications Solution Architect, IBM

Covering details about private and public cloud space, secure firewalls, virtual private networking etc. Will touch on Remote Destination technology and China/US device security issues

3:30pm – 3:45pm Data Protection/IP Enforcement in Video Game Industry
Michael G. Lewis, Chief Counsel, Intellectual Property Protection and Cybersecurity, Entertainment Software Association (ESA)

This discussion will review what ESA and the industry are doing from a data protection and IP enforcement perspective. Innovation is key in putting together games and platforms that provide a great service to consumers, but this also creates a target space for threat actors. This panel will review how the nature of these threats translates across all industries and will address threat-response related to consumer protection. The panel will also cover the impact and how these threats tend to affect both members and consumers.

3:45pm – 4:00pm International Standards for Data Privacy, Rights of Consumer and Company
Donald Maurice, Partner, Maurice Wutscher

This discussion will focus on the universal commonalities that are promoted as possible international and U.S. standards for data privacy laws, as well as distinguishing the difference between a consumer's right to privacy and the asserted right to personal data individuals have previously authorized companies to use.

4:00pm – 4:15pm TBD

4:15pm – 4:30pm TBD

4:30pm – 4:45pm TBD

4:45pm – 5:00pm TBD

Adjourn