Hawaii Attorney General and CWAG Chair Doug Chin invites you to the 2017 CWAG Chair Initiative “States Lead the Way.” This conference will explore how states have led the way to solve national issues while the federal government has remained deadlocked, and what the future holds for state action. The states remain a vital and active source for ideas to solve important issues facing society. State oversight of issues such as consumer protection, climate change, protection of endangered species and opioid abuse has led Attorneys General to work collaboratively to implement independent programs and actions to address these concerns. State Attorneys General also use their authority to ensure open government practices, law enforcement accountability, and the prosecution of acts of government corruption. Please join us as we discuss a future where although partisan politics may impact the effectiveness of the federal government, states can put aside politics to address the needs of their institutions and citizens.

PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT

The agenda is currently being developed and will continue to evolve over the next few months. A tentative agenda should be available on the CWAG website at www.cwagweb.org in February 2017. Program questions or comments can be directed to CWAG Legal Director Chris Coppin at ccoppin@cwagweb.org. Please complete the attached form and return to CWAG no later than the registration cutoff date of Friday, February 27, 2017.

This event will begin with a welcome reception on Monday, March 13, 2017, at 5:00pm. The Western Pacific Attorney General Summit will take place from 8:00am–5:00pm on Tuesday, March 14, 2017. The Chair Initiative will take place on Wednesday, March 15th, from 8:00am–5:00pm, and will conclude on Thursday, March 16th at 12:00pm. This conference is open to all private sector and government attendees.
