

Tuesday Toolbox Sessions- youth leader conversations

The Youth Ministry Leaders' summer series is already underway, but it is not too late to join in the lively discussion! There are still two zoom sessions in July and August, plus an in-person event in September. Now is the time to build our energy for a successful fall.

Do you want to talk to other youth leaders in our area? Share ideas? Together we can find ways to build and strengthen our youth programs. One Tuesday each month, 7:30-8:30 pm, we have a brief but meaningful discussion. Each session has a suggested topic, but all ideas and questions are welcome.

Last month, on June 7th, a great group of us zoomed. We dove in deep to find what elements were at the core of a successful program. We talked about what excited and motivated youth today vs years past. One trend that kept popping up was community service and collaboration with other organizations. This leads in perfectly to our next discussion topic, Community involvement and Outreach, for next Tuesday, July 12 at 7:30 pm.

More information to receive your Zoom link, or if you have any questions or concerns, please email YouthSupport@delaware.church. Please feel free to invite friends- ALL youth leaders in Delaware are Welcome to join in the discussion.
