

Fun Fact, April 27, 2022

Question: Which church was built after its congregation, which first met on Trinity Sunday, June 7, 1868, had worshipped in borrowed spaces for 23 years?

Clue: it was replaced in 1972 when its congregation needed a larger building.

Answer: St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Camden-Wyoming, Delaware.

Image: Delaware Public Archives RG 9015-001-002 Frank R. Zebley Collection, Churches of Delaware Photograph Collection