

Fun Fact, June 29, 2022

Question: Which diocesan bishop took a cold bath every morning?

Clue: He had one of the first bathtubs in Wilmington.

Answer: Bishop Alfred Lee, the first bishop of Delaware, elected May 26, 1841. Bishop Lee "...took a cold bath every morning, filling the tub the night before to temper the water."

From The Episcopal Church in Delaware: 1785-1954 by Charles A. Silliman.

Image: "Standing Bath Tub" by Matthew Anderson is licensed under CC BY-NC-SA 2.0.

Copy text