October 6, 2022

For Immediate Release: Moravian University Jazz Band to Perform Concert in Rehoboth

The Moravian University Jazz Band of Bethlehem, PA will perform a concert of jazz and swing music on Saturday, October 15, 2022, 3 PM at a special performance tent located at All Saints' Church Parking Lot located at 22 Olive Avenue in downtown Rehoboth Beach. A special offering by the parish in conjunction with Jazz Festival Weekend, the twenty-eight piece orchestra under the direction of Dr. Neil Wetzell, Professor of Music and Chair of the instrumental music program at the university. This program is being sponsored by The Episcopal Parish of All Saints' Church and St. George's Chapel with funding provided by the generosity of the Lingo Fund established in memory of Col. Jack Lingo by his family. Included in this event will be the world premier release of their recently recorded CD titled "Universe City" in homage to the school recently receiving the title of university in 2021. CDs will be available for purchase at the concert. The band will also perform a jam session at St. George's Chapel located at 20271 Beaver Dam Rd. (Rt. 23) on Sunday morning, October 16, following the 9:30 AM Jazz Mass in the chapel. In the event of inclement weather, the Saturday concert will be held in the All Saints' Parish Hall at 18 Olive Ave. These events are free and open to the public. There is no admission charge. Those attending the Saturday concert are invited to bring their own beach or folding chairs as no seating will be provided for the outdoor concert. Due to the special performance, the church parking lot will be closed to vehicles until after the concert. For more information contact the church at info@allsaintsandstgeorges.org or call 302-227-7202.

Submitted by:

Jon Rania, Director of Music and Communications