

Fun Fact, April 6, 2022

Question: In 2021, Bishop Brown appointed the Racial Justice and Reconciliation Commission. Which Delaware bishop appointed the first Interracial Relations Committee, and when?

Answer: In June 1943, Bishop McKinstry appointed the first Interracial Relations Committee with the Rev. John E. Large, rector of St. Andrew's Church, Wilmington, as chairman.

Resource: The Episcopal Church in Delaware 1785-1954, by Charles A. Silliman