ECW REPRESENTATIVE TO THE NATIONAL BOARD

BEBLON G. PARKS

Past or present Episcopal Church activities/experiences:

I am currently serving as President of the Province III ECW. I served as Member-at-Large for Social Justice on the NECW Board from 2015-2018. I was the first woman of color to serve as President of the ECW Diocese of Virginia. Prior to that, I was Vice President of Programs for the DOV ECW and served in other positions. I am active in my church, St. Philip's Episcopal in Richmond, VA where I am a Past ECW President and currently Co-chair of the ECW Nominating Committee. Member of St. Anne's Guild, the choir and former Vestry member and Search/Discernment Committees. I also help with our Food Pantry and Clothes Closet.

Goals for this position:

As Province III Representative to the National Board, I would like to continue working to grow the ECW and get more women involved in the ministries we support. I would like to represent the Province III ECW on the National Board to ensure that our voice is heard nationally and to ensure that we remain abreast of activities, ministries and programs of the National ECW and the National Church. I have read the job description for this position and will perform the functions as described therein.

ECW ALTERNATE TO THE NATIONAL BOARD

MARGARET GORDON

Past or present Episcopal Church activities/experiences:

1. Past Province III Representative to ECW National Board, 2015-2018
2. Past President and Vice President of ECW, Diocese of Washington, 2011-2015
3. Regional Representative to ECW, EDOW, 2000-2010
4. Currently: Church Periodical Club Coordinator, EDOW

Goals for this position:

This position is the primary source of information between the ECW National Board and the Provinces, ultimately the Dioceses in the Episcopal Church. Therefore, it is imperative that the flow of information is solid, consistent, accurate as well as timely between the entities. Not always an easy chose, but necessary.
