

Tell Your Story — The Episcopal Church in Delaware

Everyone has a unique story to tell, and we believe that your story deserves to be shared. Using our new storytelling approach, we invite you to join us in creating a powerful narrative that resonates with others. We want to give your story a platform and share it with the world.

Whether your story is one of triumph over adversity, an inspiring journey, a personal transformation, or a tale of resilience and hope, we want to hear it. We're open to various formats, including quick videos, written narratives, or even a full-fledged documentary. Whatever medium you choose, we are here to support you every step of the way.

In our current series in the Delaware Communion Magazine, 'My Journey in the Episcopal Church'..., our writers have expressed that sharing their story was a cathartic experience — empowering not only for them but also for those who listened and connected with their journey. Personal storytelling has the potential to inspire, uplift, and create a deeper understanding among individuals from diverse backgrounds.

We invite you to reach out to us at communications@delaware.church, or you can call Cynde at 302.345.9392. We can discuss your story, answer any questions you may have, and explore the best way to bring your narrative to life.

Together, let's embark on a journey of storytelling that celebrates the beauty and resilience of the human spirit. Your story matters, and we are eager to help you share it with the world.

We look forward to hearing from you!

Sincerely,

Cynde A. Bimbi

Director of Communications & Public Relations

Episcopal Church in Delaware