

Invitation from the Bishop!

Calling all artists, young and old! Let's start a new tradition: I am inviting you to design one of the three Christmas cards I will send this December.

The scripture text inside the card will be Luke 2:10-11, where the angel proclaimed, Do not be afraid; for see – I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord.

My wife, Caroline, and I will select one card from each age group (10 and under, 11-18, and 19 and over) to be printed and mailed. We will publicly unveil the chosen cards and all entries at our diocesan convention just before Thanksgiving. They'll also be shared online at www.delaware.church. We hope to get lots of entries from every parish in Delaware!

We all will be ready this Christmas for the eternal message of hope: God has come, right here among us. No matter how troubling 2020 has felt, there is always this good news of great joy: love has come among us, and love will come again. -- Bishop Brown

Contest Guidelines:

Please submit your artwork entry to communications@delaware.church no later than October 1. Below are a few guidelines to keep in mind:

- Please submit your artwork as an attachment in a jpg or pdf format.
- Please include your name, age group, and contact information with your submission.
- Text and background colors used in card will complement your design. Note: the above image does not represent color or design of the actual card.
- If your artwork is designed to cover the entire front of card, please submit with the approximate size/dimension of 5" x 7", otherwise it can be any dimension variation (no smaller than 3" x 3" please).
