Photo Release

UPC Children's Ministry strives to protect your child's online and social media presence and we would not want to post a photo of your child without your expressed and informed consent. By signing below, you release and give consent for UPC to use photos and videos of your child(ren) in printed and online promotional materials and on our UPC Facebook page and website. Our social media page and website are routinely monitored and we are careful about our privacy settings. Children are never tagged or identified by name in photos or videos. All photos and videos are screened before posting online. UPC strongly encourages parents to monitor their child(ren)'s online presence and to notify UPC at once if any concern arises.
