

RACIAL TRUTH, JUSTICE & Reconciliation

---

University Presbyterian Church's Social Witness Committee, Christian Formation Committee and Faith and Life Class are pleased to host this series of classes. Please come and bring a friend!

February 18, 25 & March 4: Krystal Leedy, Associate Pastor for Campus Ministry, leads a discussion of the book Waking Up White*

March 11: Informal class to reflect on issues raised during the previous three weeks

March 18: Stephanie Hawley, Associate Vice President of Equity and Inclusion, Austin Community College, speaks on "Strength to Love: Race, Racism and Grace."

March 25: Carolyn Helsel, Assistant Professor of Homiletics, Austin Seminary, leads the class using her newly released book, Anxious To Talk About It, Helping White Christians Talk Faithfully About Racism.*

April 1: Easter Sunday, no class.

April 8: Pam Brubaker, member of Social Witness Committee, focuses on "Undoing Institutional Racism: The Poor People's Campaign."

April 15: Asante Todd, Assistant Professor of Christian Ethics, Austin Seminary, speaks on "Black Lives Matter and Theology in the Public Square."

April 22: Mo Ranch weekend, no formal class this Sunday

April 29: Margaret Aymer, The First Presbyterian Church, Shreveport, D. Thomason Professor of New Testament Studies, Austin Seminary, leads a discussion of the book Raising White Kids: Bringing Up Children in a Racially Unjust America.*

University Presbyterian Church
Rooted. Growing. Connecting.

2203 San Antonio Street

The Great Hall, 9:30 A.M. – 10:40 A.M.

*All three books used in the series are available on-line.