THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever, Amen.

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

PRELUDE “How Lovely Is Thy Dwelling Place” from Requiem by J. Brahms
Pianist: Tracey Conrad / Organist: Sandy Main-Niemisto
Bench Buddy: Elianna Peters

*How lovely is Thy dwelling place, O Lord of Hosts, O Lord of Hosts.
For my soul, it longeth, yea fainteth, it longeth, yea, fainteth,
It longeth and fainteth for the courts of the Lord.
My soul and body crieth out, yea for the living God.
How lovely is Thy dwelling place, O Lord of Hosts, O Lord of Hosts.
Thy dwelling place, O Lord of Hosts, O Lord of Hosts.
Blest are they, O blest are they that dwell within Thy courts.
How lovely, how lovely, how lovely, how lovely,
How lovely is Thy dwelling place.*

CALL TO WORSHIP

Liturgist: Cathy White

We are the church that lives into God’s future today.

A church united across space and time.

A church of many races, languages and ethnicities.

A church that lives by the work of God in Christ that was, is now, and is still to come.

The one who is seated on the throne says to us:

“See, I am making all things new!”

A new heaven and a new earth,
where the home of God is among God’s people.

God’s future is epic, and it’s good news.

Remember God’s future, for this is our story!

HYMN #326 “For All the Saints”

THE CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Unison)

God of love, we thank you for your patience. You have given us many guides and helpers to inspire us, and have given us the word that one day we shall be as Christ Jesus is; yet we have been slow to hear, reluctant to learn and sluggish in our efforts. We repent this, our lack of faith and love, and ask that the love of Jesus Christ, which so healed and uplifted the saints, may mercifully deal with our sins and empower our renewed good intentions. Through Christ Jesus our Savior. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

Friends, hear the good news! Though thousands upon thousands of our ancestors did not follow God's ways perfectly, we have hope in the one who did – Jesus Christ. Thus, we and all who have come before us are rightly known as saints – the holy ones of God!

Thanks be to God for God's mercy, grace, and love! Amen!

RESPONSE HYMN #250 “Hymn of Promise”

*In our end is our beginning;
In our time, infinity;
In our doubt there is believing;
In our life, eternity.
In our death, a resurrection;
At the last, a victory,
Unrevealed until its season,
Something God alone can see.*

A VETERANS DAY CHALLENGE

In October of 2018, Navy SEAL Chad Wilkinson took his own life after suffering from the effects of numerous deployments, several TBIs, blast wave injuries, and PTSD. In 2020, Chad's wife, Sara began the CHAD1000X foundation to help raise money and awareness for Veteran Suicide.

In honor of Chad and all other Vets who struggle with, or have lost their lives to PTSD, would you consider doing a 1,000 step prayer walk on Sunday, November 9th? As you walk, pray for all of those who battle daily, with the effects of PTSD.

If you take on the challenge, please let Pastors Kellie & Kate, or Sergeant Major Dave Laycock know your commitment.

JOIN US IN HONORING OUR VETERAN OF THE MONTH

We are recognizing Roy Hughes,
Sergeant, U.S. Army, India, Burma, & China

Roy B. Hughes was born January 25, 1925, in the Village of Shelby, Michigan. His mother died when he was just seven years old, but she made him promise that he would graduate from high school - a promise that he kept. On June 18, 1943, 22 days after graduating from Pentwater High School, he entered the United States Army in Detroit, Michigan. He was trained as a military policeman and medical aid. His first assignment took him to Fort Sill, Oklahoma, where he guarded and escorted German prisoners of war to various camps throughout Oklahoma.

In spring of 1944, he was sent overseas to the Indo-China Theatre. He landed in India and made his way through Burma and eventually into China. The last assignment was in Shanghai, China, where he was assigned as a Military Policeman conducting roving city patrols, checking passes and credentials, assisting civilian police and quelling uprisings. In total, Sgt. Hughes served 15 months in India and China. He was awarded two battle stars for his service in Central Burma and the China Offensive. He was awarded the American Theatre Service Medal, the Asiatic-Pacific Theater Service Medal and Good Conduct Medal.

On July 14, 1946, he was separated from the Army at Camp McCoy, Wisconsin. He returned to Pentwater and an old friend and fellow veteran who was in the Navy talked him into working on the car ferries on Lake Michigan. He started his career on August 29, 1946 and ended his career on December 11, 1946. As he would say, "I survived Burma and China, not to die during a winter storm on Lake Michigan."

Roy met Maxine Tyler through his old Navy buddy (yes, the same one) and they married on November 7, 1947. Roy bounced around Muskegon working at various places until he got into the management program with F. W. Woolworth Company in late fall, 1949. For the next 39 years, he managed a number of stores throughout Indiana and Illinois with his last store being located in Decatur, Illinois. He retired in 1988.

During their marriage of almost 46 years, Roy and Maxine had three boys. Roy passed away on August 29, 1993. But Roy's legacy of public service continued through his sons. Ron went into education, Wayne served in the Air Force with a tour in Vietnam, and he and Ric, the youngest brother, ended up retiring from the Decatur Police Department. But, the legacy does not end there. Of the six grandchildren that Roy and Maxine had - Adam retired from Oak Park Public Safety; Don is a U. S. Deputy Marshal as well as a retired SFC, U.S. Army; and Sarah works as the Associate Director of Veteran Services at Kent State University. Rachel served in the United States Marine Corp and is a former Macon County, Illinois, Corrections Officer. She currently works for Macon County Veterans Service Center. Jessica and Laura work in health careers.

We at Rosedale Gardens would like to recognize and honor Roy Hughes' contribution to the safety and security of this great nation. We thank him for his dedicated and honorable service. Well done, good and faithful servant.
