FATHER’S DAY CHAOS by Freebridge Media

THE LORD’S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

WELCOME & ANNOUNCEMENTS

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

PRELUDE “Hide Me in Your Holiness” - arr. Steve Ragsdale

Soloist: Martha Andridge

*Hide me Lord, in your holiness,
Every sin I now confess.*

*Praise to you, forgiving Lord,
Hide me in your holiness,
Hide me in your holiness.*

*Take my life an offering;
All of me to you I bring.*

*Praise to you, oh, spotless lamb,
Hide me in you holiness,
Hide me in your holiness.*

*Hide me, hide me, hide me Lord.
Won't you hide me, hide me;
Hide me in your holiness,
Hide me in your holiness.*

CALL TO WORSHIP

Liturgist: Paul Lumley

Come walk with God in these moments of worship.
Celebrate God's covenant with us and all humankind.

Surely God is in this place today.

We find refuge and strength as we gather.

Be still and know that God is good.

All people on earth are God's concern.

We have come to seek God's peace and to hear what God would have us do.

We seek the courage to do what God intends. Let us worship God.

HYMN #687 “Our God, Our Help in Ages Past”

CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Merciful God, in a world trembling with uncertainty, we confess that fear often shapes our choices more than faith. We have clung to control instead of trusting your care. We have guarded our own comfort while neglecting the needs of others. We have allowed anxiety to drown out your voice for peace.

Forgive us for the ways we have let fear harden our hearts. Forgive us for doubting your presence as the world closes in on us. Renew in us a spirit of courage, compassion, and hope. Remind us that perfect love casts out fear, and that you are our refuge and strength. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

We have shared our unfaithfulness with God together. Our prayers have been heard, and we have been made right with God. My friends in Christ, believe the Good News of the Gospel. In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.
Thanks be to God.

PRAYER RESPONSE “We are Forgiven”

*We are forgiven! We are Forgiven!
Thanks be to God. Thanks be to God!
We are forgiven! We are Forgiven!
Thanks be to God. Thanks be to God!*

THE PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION (Unison)

Loving God, in a world racked with fear, you gather us together. You set the table. You meet us here. You nourish our bodies as you nourish our spirits. You remind us that this is a joyful feast, and that fear cannot win every time. So, with renewed courage, with renewed hope, with renewed conviction, send us out into the world. Help us to feed others as you have fed us.

We pray with gratitude. Amen.

The peace of Christ be with you. And also with you.

*The congregation is now invited to share

POSTLUDE “Rise Up, O Men of God” by Gilbert Martin

*Rise up, O men of God! Have done with lesser things;

As brothers of the Son of Man, rise up, O men of God.*

Mental Health Matters

June is Men's Health & Mental Health Month

June is a time to have candid discussions, reduce stigma and encourage exams leading to early detection and treatment of curable or manageable diseases and promoting access to mental health services.

Here are some important points to consider:

- Physical Health: Men are often less likely to visit the doctor. Scheduled annual check-ups help monitor overall health including prostate, colon, heart and lung health and testicular and breast cancer, colon health, and heart and lung health.
- Mental Health: Men face unique mental health challenges influenced by societal expectations around masculinity, such as appearing strong, emotionless, or in control. These pressures contribute to higher rates of suicide (4 times more than women), substance abuse, and reluctance to seek help. Men experience a wide range of mental health conditions, including depression, anxiety, stress, and substance use disorders. Symptoms often include feeling overwhelmed, withdrawing from social connections, persistent worry, and difficulty expressing emotions.

Men need to know its okay:

- To Feel Insecure
- To Talk about feelings
- To Have Bad Days
- To Cry
- To Break Down
- To Feel Weak
- To Not Be Okay
- To Feel
- To Be Vulnerable
- To Go to Therapy
- To Ask For Help

WELCOME HOME REV. DR. KEITH PROVOST!

Keith Provost is a second career pastor having previously had a career as a public school business administrator. He started his ministry at Kirk in the Hills in 2007 as a Temporary Supply Associate for Outreach and Mission and “retired” in 2012. Since “retiring” he has served as Interim Pastor in Lincoln Park (retired again) and Farmington (retired yet again) and was Parish Associate at Rosedale Gardens in Livonia. He retired for the 4th time only to be asked to return to Kirk in the Hills as a very part-time Parish Associate for Pastoral Care. Hoping the 5th time is the charm he retired again last October! He and his wife, Mary Lou, have three grown children, and five grandchildren. When Keith and Mary Lou are not traveling to see family, they enjoy spending time at the family cabin in northern Michigan. He is grateful for the opportunity to return to RGPC.

Pastor Kellie's SABBATICAL

As encouraged by the PC(USA), granted by the Board of Session, and because of 25 years of faithful service, Pastor Kellie has earned a 6-month Sabbatical. Her Sabbatical began in early June and will conclude in time for the Advent & Christmas Season.

During this time if you have any pastoral care needs please be sure to contact Pastor Kate or our Co-Directors of Congregational Care, Pam Johnson or Doug Propst.

JOIN US IN HONORING OUR VETERAN OF THE MONTH
We are recognizing Jacob “Jack” Stephen Watts
Engineman Petty Officer 2nd Class, U.S. Navy

Today we honor the life and service of Jacob “Jack” Stephen Watts — a devoted husband, father, skilled mechanic, proud Navy veteran, and a man known for his quiet dedication to both his country and his family.

Jack was born in September of 1946 and spent his early years in the Delray neighborhood of Detroit. Later, his family moved to Lincoln Park, where he graduated from Lincoln Park High School.

In November of 1965, Jack answered the call to serve his country by enlisting in the United States Navy. During his four years of service, he was stationed aboard the USS Howard W. Gilmore (AS-16), a submarine tender based out of Charleston, South Carolina. As an engineman and mechanic, Jack earned special clearance to work on submarine engines — a responsibility that reflected both his skill and the trust placed in him. He also served in Newfoundland aboard the Mecosta (YTM-392) tugboat, where he assisted with towing and salvage operations.

After his honorable discharge from the Navy, Jack continued the work he loved by joining General Motors, where he specialized in diesel engines. He became known for his determination and strong work ethic, refusing to walk away from a problem until he found the solution. His ingenuity even earned him recognition for developing a tool that made the job easier for others. After 31 years of service, Jack retired from GM at the age of 57.

In 1971, Jack married the love of his life, Irene. The two first met on a blind date at a wedding and were married a year and a half later. Together they built a life centered on love, loyalty, and family, sharing 53 years of marriage before Jack’s passing in September of 2024. They raised one son, Jack, who shared many of his father’s interests and talents.

Retirement gave Jack more time to devote to the people and hobbies he cared about most. When his mother became ill, he selflessly cared for her until her passing. He loved working with his hands, always tinkering, building, and creating. Whether helping his son with science projects, crafting Halloween costumes, painting model ships, or later building model trains, Jack found joy in the details and pride in doing things well.

Jack’s life was one of service — to his country, to his family, and to everyone fortunate enough to know him. This month, we remember not only his military service, but also the integrity, kindness, and dedication that defined his life. May we honor his memory with gratitude and never forget the sacrifices made by veterans like Jack Watts.

We at Rosedale would like to recognize and honor Jack’s contribution to the safety and security of this great nation. We thank him for his dedicated and honorable service. Well done, good and faithful servant.
