THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

PRELUDE "Trumpet Tune in G" by Jeremy J. Bankson
Trumpeter: Derek Lockhart

CALL TO WORSHIP Rob Angevine, Sergeant, United States Marine Corps

Come, let us gather in the presence of God, who is our refuge, our strength, and our high tower.

We come to give thanks for God's enduring faithfulness across every generation.

Today, we remember and give thanks for the men and women who have answered the call to serve—those who stood in defense of liberty, justice, peace and safety.

We honor their courage, remember their sacrifices, and pray for God's comfort and healing upon all who serve and their families.

Let us commit ourselves anew to the work of peacemaking, compassion, and loving our neighbors as ourselves.

With grateful hearts, let us worship God, the giver of light, life, and true freedom!

HYMN #331 "God of the Ages, Whose Almighty Hand"

CALL TO CONFESSION (Psalm 91)

The Lord says, "I will rescue those who love me. I will protect those who trust in my name. When they call me, I will answer; I will be with them in trouble. I will rescue them and honor them.

Trusting God's great love we are ready to come before God.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Unison)

God of mercy and peace, we know that we live in a world fractured by violence, conflict, and division. We confess that we do not always honor the sacrifices made on our behalf, nor do we care as faithfully as we should for those who bear the physical, emotional, and spiritual wounds of service.

Forgive us for taking our blessings for granted and for placing our ultimate trust in human power rather than your eternal kingdom. Transform our hearts, heal our land, and mold us into instruments of your healing grace and reconciled peace. In the name of Jesus Christ, the Prince of Peace, we pray. Amen

ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

Hear the good news: God is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. Through Jesus Christ, our sins are forgiven, our hearts are renewed, and we are empowered to walk as children of peace.

Thanks be to God! Amen.

RESPONSE (Hymn #447) "We Are Forgiven"

We are forgiven. We are forgiven.
Thanks be to God. Thanks be to God.

CHOIR ANTHEM "We Honor You" by Roger Emerson

CHORUS: We honor you.
We honor you for sacrifices made, for courage you displayed.
We honor you.
We honor you for giving us your all, responding to the call, we honor you.

From the sandy shores of Normandy to South Korean lands,
From the jungles deep of Vietnam to Middle Eastern sands;
Some gave their lives, you gave your souls, came home with battle scars.
This is the day we honor you, the privilege is ours to honor you.

CHORUS

To some it's just a holiday, for us it's so much more;
The bravery we know it took to fight some far-off war.
We'll do our best to say to you how much we owe this debt.
To all who served our nation proud, this day we won't forget to honor you.

CHORUS

We honor you. We honor you.

Praise God, all creatures here below;
Praise God above ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, and Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

PRAYER OF GENEROSITY (Unison)

Holy God, as a community of faith we give back to you what we can. Please bless these gifts we have given so that this church may be a place of radical hospitality, vibrant worship, intentional faith formation, adventurous

Mental Health Matters

November is National Hospice & Palliative Care Month

National Hospice and Palliative Care Month was established in 1978 by then President Jimmy Carter and is observed every November to raise awareness about hospice and palliative care and to honor the professionals who provide compassionate support to patients and families facing serious illness. Originally, the number of patients in the United States was in the thousands. Today hospice programs in the United States provide care to more than 1.65 million people.

Hospice is a type of care for people with a serious illness that won't get better. It's not about finding a cure, but rather it helps with pain, symptoms, and stress so the person can feel as comfortable as possible. It focuses on supporting the patient and is about what matters most to the person — what they want, what they care about, and helping them live as well as possible, not just treating their illness but including emotional and spiritual counseling, education, practical personal care assistance as well as supporting the families.

Palliative care is specialized medical care that focuses on relieving symptoms, stress, and improving quality of life for people with serious illnesses — at any age or stage. It can be given at any time during a serious illness regardless of the prognosis, even if the person is still getting treatment to try to get better. A team of doctors, nurses, social workers, and others work together to care for the whole person—care that helps people feel more comfortable, and learn about their choices, and live as well as they can. This can include counseling, coping strategies, planning that reflects the patient's goals and values, as well as support, resources, and guidance for families.

FAIR TRADE CERTIFIED

JOIN US IN HONORING OUR FIRST RESPONDER OF THE MONTH

We are recognizing Jake Hewitt
Assistant Driver, Livonia Fire Department

On March 21, 2026, Assistant Driver Jake Hewitt was assigned to Livonia Fire Station 4 when his crew responded to a residence for a report of a sick person. During the call, Jake became concerned about the patient's illness and significant weakness. He repeatedly encouraged her to be transported to the emergency department for further evaluation and treatment. Despite his efforts and recommendations, the patient declined transport. For most responders, that would have been the end of the call. For Jake, it was not.

Approximately 48 hours later, while off duty, Jake remained troubled by the patient's condition and her decision not to seek further medical care. Acting solely out of concern for her welfare, he returned to the residence to check on her. When he arrived at the home and approached the door, he heard faint moans and calls for help coming from inside. Fearing that the resident was in immediate danger, he made entry into the home and found the same patient he had treated two days earlier now critically ill and in need of immediate medical attention. He immediately contacted Livonia Fire Dispatch and requested that personnel from Fire Station 4 respond. The patient was treated and emergently transported to the hospital, where she remained for several weeks receiving care. She was ultimately released from the hospital and continues her recovery at home. Had Jake not remembered this resident, remained concerned for her welfare, and made the personal decision to check on her while off duty, the outcome could have been tragically different.

Following her hospitalization, the patient sent a card to the Livonia Fire Chief. She did not know the name of the firefighter who had returned to check on her, but she wanted the department to know what his actions meant to her. She wrote: "This man saved my life." Those words capture the significance of what occurred.

Jake's actions exemplify compassion, personal responsibility, and a commitment to others that extends beyond the walls of the fire station and beyond the hours of a scheduled shift. When the emergency call was over, his concern for the person he had served was not. Because of his extraordinary and selfless actions, and the life that was very likely saved as a result, Assistant Driver Jake Hewitt was recognized as the recipient of the American Legion 9-11 Firefighter of the Year Award.

We at Rosedale would like to recognize and honor Assistant Driver Jake Hewitt's contribution to the safety of the Livonia community. We thank him for his dedicated and honorable service. Well done, good and faithful servant.
