

Xiomara Loarte

Xiomara currently works as Community Outreach Coordinator for the New York City Central Labor Council, AFL-CIO. In that role, she represents the NYCCLC and facilitates affiliates' involvement in issue-based coalitions. One of her main areas of responsibility is management of the Community Board Initiative, which aims to educate affiliate members in order to increase participation, collaboration, and engagement with the local grassroots levels of City government. She also oversees NYCCLC's immigration program and community service outreach, plays a key role in annual event coordination, and serves as the general point of contact for the varying needs of affiliates and community partners.

Xiomara previously was legislative director and aide to State Senator Gustavo Rivera, after serving as his Campaign Manager in 2016.

Xiomara was named a "Labor Rising Star" by City & State in April, 2020. She was also NYSCEEA Student of the Year in 2013, and served on the HEOP Leadership Council from 2011-12. Xiomara holds a B.A. in History and Political Science from Mount Saint Mary College in Newburgh, New York.
