

Deaf Education in South Texas: Schools for Multilingual Area Needs

Part of Abriendo Camino: San Antonio Area Students and College Readiness and Success

Monday, May 1, 2017

Café College

131 El Paso Street
San Antonio, TX, 78204

Continental Breakfast 8 am – 9 am
Workshop 9 am – 11:30 am

Presented by Dr. Catherine O'Brien of Gallaudet University

This session will focus on the national need for the preparation of deaf educators to fill teaching and administrative ranks, will briefly discuss the multiple approaches to the teaching of deaf students and will discuss the cultural and language needs of deaf students (such as Latinx) in multilingual contexts.. Presenters will discuss Gallaudet's effort to foster the development of new schools for the deaf. This event is aimed at educators and policy makers, who will learn more about this area need.

Registration for this event is free online at <https://mondaysessions.eventbrite.com> Priority registration ends April 3, 2017.

For more information contact Dr. Maricela Oliva
(maricela.oliva@utsa.edu)

UTSA[®]