

All About the ECERS-3: A Training with An Author

Wednesday & Thursday
October 9 & 10, 2019

Time: 9:00 am to 4:00 pm

The Puritan Conference & Event Center
Pappas/Canotas Room
245 Hooksett Road
Manchester, NH 03104

Training Description: Join us for this two-day training on the Early Childhood Environment Rating Scale (ECERS-3). If you work with Preschool, Pre-K or Kindergarten age group, this training is designed for you and will introduce you to the ECERS-3. You'll uncover where and when the scales are used and how they measure quality in your program. Activities will be provided that will help you become more familiar with the format and content of the ECERS-3. We will discuss how the scale requirements can be interpreted and scored and how procedures for completing observations can be conducted. Additionally, in-depth information will be shared about specific items of the scale, indicators and research findings.

Target Audience: Preschool, Pre-K and Kindergarten Teachers, Directors, Administrators, Mentors, Trainers and Consultants

Trainer Bio: Cathy Riley has an M.S. in Early Childhood Education and a B.S. in Business Administration. Cathy is co-author of the widely used All About the ECERS-3, All About ECERS-R and All About the ITERS-R books. She recently co-authored All About Preschoolers, an environment-based curriculum that emphasizes a comprehensive approach to child development. She has served as an Environment Rating Scale (ERS) Reliability Anchor and data collector with federal and state research and evaluation projects using many early childhood assessment instruments and child outcome measurements. Cathy served as a coordinator, establishing systems for reliability for a statewide Quality Rating System, as well as training assessors throughout North Carolina on the ERS.
