

2018 Fall NH

Early Childhood Leadership Summit Inspired Leadership and Lavender

Join CCAoNH for the 5th Annual 2018 Fall NH Early Childhood Leadership Summit. This year, we are bringing you Erin Ramsey, a nationally acclaimed inspirational speaker, author and lavender farmer. In the morning, Erin will engage participants in self-reflection as they discover tools that will help them go from stressed to joyful. Get ready to be inspired, to take action and to feel rejuvenated! In the second half of the day, Erin will discuss inspired leadership. Erin will share the six (6) choices leaders need to make to develop the competitive advantage of being INSPIRED. In a world of change and uncertainty, the need for INSPIRED leaders is a necessity. Erin's address is full of humor, stories, photos and offers realistic and relevant tools to help leaders shine bright to light the way for others. She will take you through a journey of self-consideration, joyful living and inspired leadership.

Trainer Bio: Erin has worked in the non-profit sector for over twenty-five years. Beginning her career as a family child care provider, she served as Executive Director of a Child Care Resource and Referral agency for twelve years and later the Director of Early Childhood for the third largest urban school district in Indiana. She also led the statewide marketing initiative for the QRIS in Indiana. Erin is the author of Be Amazing: Tools for Living Inspired and Inspired Work. She speaks for audiences throughout the country and internationally to inspire others for greater service.

Erin has an undergraduate degree in Child Development and Psychology from California State University at Sacramento. She earned a Master of Science in Public Service Administration from the University of Evansville.

She resides in Kentucky with her family on their lavender farm called Big Roots. Their goal is to GROW PEACE and provide a place for inspiration and rejuvenation for the well being of others.
