Leadership Journeys in Early Childhood Education

Join Child Care Aware of NH, powered by Southern New Hampshire Services, for the 6th Annual Spring NH Early Childhood Leadership Summit. During the morning presentation, Ann will share some of the lessons learned on her leadership journey to becoming an award winning, effective and inspiring leader. The afternoon presentation will allow the participants to reflect upon their own leadership journeys and create a vision for their future leadership opportunities.

Trainer Bio: Ann Terrell is a well-respected early childhood education leader with over 40 years of professional experience in the field. She has served in early childhood leadership positions from the classroom to the boardroom and has recently been elected as President Elect of the National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC). Ann is author of the publication, "Graceful Leadership in Early Childhood Education."
