Training Description: Join us for this two-day training on the Early Childhood Environment Rating Scale (ECERS-3) with an Environment Rating Scale Institute trainer (ERSI), Jennifer Kalas. If you work with Preschool, Pre-K or Kindergarten age groups, this training is designed for you and will introduce you to the ECERS-3. You'll uncover where and when the scales are used and how they measure quality in your program. Activities will be provided that will help you become more familiar with the format and content of the ECERS-3. We will discuss how the scale requirements can be interpreted and scored and how procedures for completing observations can be conducted. Additionally, in-depth information will be shared about specific items of the scale, indicators and research findings.

Target Audience: Preschool, Pre-K and Kindergarten Teachers, Directors, Administrators, Mentors, Trainers and Consultants

Trainer Bio: Jennifer Kalas, M.Ed., has a B.S. in Elementary Education and a M.Ed. in Educational Leadership. Jennifer presents nationally, regionally and locally on best practices in early childhood and consults with directors, coaches and teachers on the Environment Rating Scales (ERS), program development and improvement. She uses the ERS for assessment, coaching and training as Nevada's Anchor Assessor. She has documented reliability with the authors of the ERS for over 10 years.
