

CHILD ENGAGEMENT: PROMOTING SUCCESS AND PREVENTING CHALLENGING BEHAVIORS

This training will introduce Pyramid Model (Tier 1) practices that support young children's social-emotional development and reduce barriers to engagement, including challenging behaviors. Classroom design, curriculum, and teaching styles will be addressed to help participants understand their role in working with young children to promote successful engagement with adults, children, materials and their environment.

Presenter: Christina Denis – Ed.D., ECMP-WTF

Christina is a PTAN Child Care Consultant and long-time early childhood education professional. She has worked with young children, infants through kindergarten and has served as Director of her own private child care program. Chris is also Adjunct Faculty at Manchester Community College.
