

There are so many reasons to join New Hampshire's revised Quality Recognition and Improvement System.

Professional Development Opportunities:

All modules and workshops required to enter the system are available to providers free of charge! You can “double-dip” as these trainings are counted toward individual PD hours requirements, toward credential requirements, AND toward GSQ eligibility!

Work smarter, not harder.

