

The Masked Unicorn

Curriculum Engagement Activities on Masking

There are two opportunities to attend this training:

Monday, December 14, 2020, 6:30-7:30 PM OR

Thursday, December 17, 2020, 12:30-1:30 PM

Masks are essential to stop the spread of COVID-19. Helping teach children to know how and why to wear a mask will help children be more comfortable with the new norm. Join us as trainer, Megg Thompson, provides a session on engaging children through a curriculum full of humor and helpful strategies. This training promises to be interactive, complete with songs, visuals, poems and your friendly everyday unicorn!

Trainer: Megg Thompson, M.Ed., Certified Behavioral Consultant
Certified Life Coach & Professional Speaker
Megg is a former Kindergarten teacher of ten years, a Certified Behavioral Consultant and Certified Life Coach working with children, adults and families. She is also a PTAN consultant. Megg is the founder and filler of The eMpTy Toolbox. To get to where she is today she has interned with Bev Bos at the Roseville Community Preschool in Roseville, CA while getting her Master's degree in Early Childhood Education from the University of New Hampshire. Through these experiences, she has adopted a proactive and strength based approach to behavior. She uses this model to help ALL children and adults find success and empowerment through their natural design. She spends her days in both public and private schools, early learning centers, preschools and in homes helping children of all ages be the best they can be. Megg is newly a children's book author!
