

NEWBRIDGE
ON THE CHARLES

Dr. Miriam and Sheldon G. Adelson Campus

January 24, 2020

Hello everyone,

Last week I had lots to talk about; this week is short and sweet:

Tomorrow, Saturday, January 25 at 2 p.m., David Raider and Judy Stavis will be co-hosting Coffee, Conversation, Games and Rugelach in the Synagogue. This is a great chance to partake in Scrabble, Trivial Pursuit, and other activities with your friends and neighbors. I think the best part of the afternoon will be the opportunity to enjoy Judy's famous homemade rugelach!

Our quarterly fire alarm testing will affect the garage and cottages next week. Please refer to the attachment for further details.

Tomorrow evening, celebrating the year-end, our culinary team will be gathering to enjoy an evening together away from NewBridge. Many of the team dress to the nines and show off some amazing dance moves. The evening is always one of my favorites of the year, but I never stay very long because the sight of me dancing can be horrifying.

Have a wonderful weekend,
