Hand Crocheted Water Balloons Qty: 1

While it feels like winter outside, summer will be here again. Generations of children (and adults) have tried to beat the heat by having water balloon fights. Instead of littering your lawn with small bits of latex water balloons, use some reusable crocheted water balloons. After use, these hand crocheted balloons can be washed and dried and stored until their next use.

This item includes 16 crocheted reusable water balloons, storage bin, and use/care instructions.

Altered Book Workshop Qty: 12

Art teacher Theresa Miller will introduce you to the fun craft of Altered books. It is a good use for sturdy old books that are being discarded. It can combine scrapbooking, journaling, collage, painting, any combination of art that you like. It can also involve creating nooks, drawers, and crannies to place items in. It can become a beautiful display piece. Those of you missing our soul collage adult R.E. might be especially interested. Held at UUCH fellowship hall. Two session Jan 21 & 28, 2019 @ 7PM.

Meet friends at the Mio Amore Café in Amorville, AL for the annual Valentine's soiree hosted by Hanna and Harry Heart, former high school sweethearts who've made the town proud. Hanna is a beautiful NFL cheerleader, and Harry is a famous NFL quarterback. As a guest (with an assigned character) at the Heart's party, you'll enjoy appealing appetizers, delicious dinner, luscious libations and decadent desserts while catching up on the latest juicy gossip. However, rumors floating around town about scandals, deceit, bribery, and blackmail may cause friction at the party!

The Hearts hope you and your friends can put aside your differences and have a fabulous time at the Mio Amore Café (aka the home of Pam & Brad Korb, co-hosted with Mitzi Woody & Tommy Schrimsher). The Café has 20 open reservations for this Valentine's Dinner. The Café also has a separate room for childcare, if needed.

Escape the dreary January weather, and join Gary and Barbara for a night of poker to be held at the church. Beginners and experienced players are all welcome. We will start with a description of poker terms, rules and commonly played games (no Texas Hold-'em or Strip Poker). There will be a wall chart that shows how poker hands are ranked. We will play for poker chips, not money (or items of clothing). When we finish, the winner at each table will get a prize, and new players will have learned one of the most enjoyable of card games. Some of our favorite family stories come from playing poker with our adult children over the holidays.
