200	A Trip Through France Wine Tasting	$40.00		2	Viva la France! Whether it's Chardonnay or Pinot Noir (Burgundy), Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot (Bordeaux), Syrah (Rhone Valley), Sauvignon Blanc (the Loire Valley) or sparkling wine (Champagne), French wines set the standard against which all other winemakers worldwide are judged. Kristen Lindelow will be your tour guide during this entertaining and educational evening exploring the most important and popular wines (and winemaking regions) in France. We will explore the 12 main regions of France tasting wines from each region as we discuss the history of the wine, its characteristics, and what you should expect when you buy a bottle. The tasting will be hosted by Susan and Tim Coddington. Date will be coordinated with bidders. Kristen is a Certified Wine Judge who judges wine competitions around the country. She is a Certified French Wine Scholar, a Certified Specialist of Wine (CSW) through the Society of Wine Educators, California Wine Appellation Specialist (CWAS), and is working on becoming a Master of Burgundy and Italian Wine Specialist. She has also passed the international Wine & Spirits Education Trust Intermediate Level exam with merit. She loves wine and loves to share it!	Susan & Tim Coddington

304	Guided Family Hike on Green Mountain (Adults) 11/13/2016		$10.00	8	Join us to hike the new Land Trust Alum Hollow Trail on Green Mountain. This is an out-and-back hike less than three miles total. Most of the hike is on an easy level path, with some gentle descents and uphills. You will cross a creek on a newly constructed bridge. There is a moderately strenuous steep descent at the end into a hollow, with another creek draining from north to south. You will see a waterfall (may or may not have water) and a large overhanging rock formation, known as Alum Cave, an impressive overhang that's more of a rock shelter than a subterranean cave. The trail starts about a half mile south of the turnoff to the Madison County Nature Trail on South Shawnee Road. There's a newly completed parking lot at the trailhead. Sign up: $10 for adults, $5 for kids, with family maximum of $30. Hikers should bring their own water. The hike will begin at 2:00 pm Sunday, November 13, rain date November 20.	Ed Bernstein
