

African Union

a United and Strong Africa

COURSE TITLE: THE MODEL AFRICAN UNION

PAS-37020- CRN: 16725 (sophomore standing) / ENG 39995 ST, CRN: 13373

Spring 2019
12:30–1:45 PM
146 ORH
Department of Pan-African Studies

Faculty: Dr. Babacar M'Baye

Email: bmbaye@kent.edu; Phones: 330-672-0155; 330-672-1742.

<http://www.modelafricanunion.org/>

In this course, students will:

- Study past and current issues that confront Africa and the African Union (AU)
- Travel to Washington D.C. to attend simulated meetings of the African Union: Feb. 21-24 2019
- Attend the 2019 National Model African Union Conference at Howard University

This interdisciplinary undergraduate course allows students to do four things:

- Learn about Africa's major 20th-21st Century Challenges
- Study African Politics in Practice in the Nation's capital
- Participate in a simulated summit of the African Union
- Network with students and faculty from 30 to 40 universities and colleges

Political issues address will include:

- Health, education, development, human rights, finance, women's rights, literacy, environment, foreign policy, international relations, public policy, child soldiers, border conflicts, war, peace, immigration, the arts, among others

SPECIAL COURSE FEE REQUIRED (Visit The Schedule of Classes for details.)

For more information about this course, contact Dr. M'Baye at bmbaye@kent.edu or 330-672-1742.