

LEGENDARY VENTURES

Company

Legendary Ventures is a venture capital partnership (“LVP”) that accelerates value creation for emerging companies operating across the consumer, retail, and technology industries (“CRT”). The venture capital firm represents a unique collaboration between investors and retail operators with extensive industry relationships. This enables the firm to capture unique deal flow and strategically work with portfolio companies to drive stellar returns for our investors.

Challenge

We are looking for a venture marketing manager to join our multi-disciplinary fund operations team. The position will work closely with our senior partners and operations personnel to handle day-to-day management of investments and investors, managing all social accounts, including building confidence and belief in the firm’s vision and fund’s strategy by attending local tech events.

Responsibilities

- Develop a robust investor/startup relations network for the firm/fund
- Deliver strong investor/startup leads (25+ per/month) for the firm/fund
- Create a strong internal/external reputation with clear communication for the firm/fund
- Build a strong brand reputation with consistent behavior for the firm/fund
- Manage social, marketing, and PR-related programs for the firm/fund
- Support equity research and investor relationships to the firm/fund

Qualifications

- Degree in marketing or finance (or related field preferred)
- Expertise with mainstream financial applications, reporting systems
- Advanced computer skills in MS Office, accounting software and databases
- Excellent in client facing sales, reporting engagements
- Excellent organizational, problem-solving, management and communication skills
- Experience in fund environment/management a plus
- Travel required

Compensation

- Full-Time (or equivalent)
- Reports to Senior/Partner

Location

- Los Angeles, California