OUR LADY OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT PARISH

"The winding roads shall be made straight, and the rough ways made smooth."
—Luke 3:5

Second Sunday of Advent | December 8, 2024

Under Mary's mantle, and with the guidance of the Holy Trinity, Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament seeks to share God's love by celebrating the sacraments, proclaiming the gospel, and serving the needs of all His children.

In this Sunday's Gospel from Luke, we hear John the Baptist call us to "prepare the way of the Lord" and make straight the paths that lead us to hope and healing. In our Journey of the Heart Grief Share Group, participants have found that even in the midst of loss, God's love shines through as they journey together toward comfort and renewal. Following, read testimonials from members who have experienced the transformative power of sharing their burdens and finding grace in community.

Something I Would "Get Through"

Grief took me by surprise. Always the strong one, I was mistaken and thought that the tremendous sadness of living without my husband of forty-two years was something I would get through, and could do so on my own. I am forever grateful that I had been encouraged to be open to the support I found with Journey of the Heart. The first session Kleenex boxes got a great deal of attention. Some even found it too painful to share the stories of their loss. We started on the path together of learning to grieve in our own ways. We found comfort in the common thread to our broken hearts knowing that others understood in a way that our best friends and family, despite sincere efforts, could not. Our facilitators were not only there to listen, but to enlighten us. Having invested years offering support and guidance to many before us, they were able to inspire conversations, address resentment and confusion, even tackle hopelessness. They drew from our faith in God, armed us with the power of prayer and most importantly, they gave us hope!

Blessed to have taken part in all four seasons of Journey of the Heart, I have become what I am certain to be lifelong friends with some who shared my story. There remains a place in our hearts for the sadness of our losses, but thanks to this life altering opportunity, we will be there for each other, wherever God's plans take us. —Colleen S.

Tried to Make Sense of It On My Own

If there is such a thing as a soulmate, he definitely was mine, the love of my life, my partner, my best friend. My spouse of 52 years and to lose him was (and is) devastating. I tried to make sense of it on my own, and my family and friends were lovely, but they couldn't fathom the depths of my grief, as they weren't walking the same journey. I needed to talk to people who were experiencing the same situation as I was. I looked around and even went to another group, but it was non-denominational, and I needed the comfort of my own religion.

I found out about Journey of the Heart one day at our monthly Prayer Shawl meeting. And I'm so glad I did. The facilitators who run the Journey of the Heart program allowed us to express our grief in our own way, and helped show us that through the love of Jesus Christ, we are not alone in our journey. I went through all four seasons of the program and have met so many lovely people who truly understood what I was going through—many of which I now treasure and consider my dear friends. I am so grateful to God and to all the people who run Journey of the Heart for helping me at such a trying time and for bringing all these wonderful dear friends into my life. Thank you for this wonderful ministry. —Judi E.

Where Do I Go from Here?

It was March 2021 and my darling wife was diagnosed with Stage 4 Brain Cancer. All efforts to save her life failed and she passed away on 12-10-21. We were devastated. How could God let this happen? Fr. Dan came to console me with spiritual support and hope, and shortly thereafter I was asked to join the bereavement and grief group call "Journey of the Heart". I agreed to participate and we learned that when someone dies, you don't get over it by forgetting, you get over it by remembering. We talked about the loss of our loved ones and how the Word of God promises to resurrect them when Jesus returns to establish His kingdom. I learned that my darling wife will live again; her "born again" spirit and soul will rise to live forever with Christ our King! A promise to all of us who choose to believe in the Word of God; to those of us who believe in Jesus Christ, the Savior of the world! And so, I believe in one God, the Father Almighty; I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and our life in the world to come, amen. I have learned to believe! —Ray P.

*The next season of Journey of the Heart will be on Thursday afternoons from 2:30 to 4pm and begins January 16th. John the Baptist makes it clear that he is not the Messiah, but is preparing the way for the Messiah. "He was not the light, but came to testify to the light." —John 1:8

Discussion Questions
How can we "make straight the way for the Lord?"

Many people mistakenly thought John was the Messiah. Who is someone that you would like to be mistaken for? Why?

John came to "testify to the light." How can we help others more clearly see Jesus?
