CELEBRATE THE JOY OF MARRIAGE

Whether you're newly engaged, dreaming of walking down the aisle, or hoping to convalidate your civil marriage in the Church, Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament Parish is here for you! Our priests are ready to guide you through the beauty of the Sacrament of Marriage, and our Marriage & Family Ministers will accompany you every step of the way, sharing their own experiences of love, faith and family life to support and inspire you.

In today's Gospel from John, Jesus performed His first public miracle at the wedding at Cana, turning water into wine. At His mother's request, He revealed His glory at a celebration of love! Your marriage will also be a reflection of His grace and glory.

Let's make your marriage a reflection of God's love and grace.

Contact the parish office today to take the next step: (847) 979-0901 or info@olbsegv.org

We Want to Hear from You!

February also includes the celebrations of World Marriage Sunday (February 9, 2025), and Valentine's Day (February 14, 2025). From couples recently married to those celebrating decades of wedded bliss, we'd love to hear how your journey of love and faith has unfolded. Share your story with us, and you could be featured in our February bulletin to inspire and uplift others!

Let your love story shine! Contact us today: maryellen@olbsegv.org or (847) 979-0901 x1007.

Gospel in Focus: January 26, 2025
Jesus tells the people at the synagogue that He is the One the prophet Isaiah was referring to. "He said to them, 'Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing.'" Luke 4:21

Discussion Questions
Jesus returns to His hometown in this Gospel. How do you think everyone felt when Jesus declared that He is the One referred to in scripture?

Today's Gospel reminds us how imporant it is to read scripture. How can I spend time in scripture this week?

Jesus claims to release captives and free the oppressed. In what ways does He do this throughout His earthly ministry?
