

SPRING 2021

You're not alone

Connecting for Kids (CFK) provides education and support to families who have concerns about their child. We serve all families, including those children with and without formal diagnoses. CFK offers educational programs, support groups, a Parent Match Program and numerous resources.

Designed for your family

Programs are designed to educate and support families of children (birth - 12 years) who are struggling. Look for these icons to choose programs for your family:

- Y Families with young children (0-6 years)
- E Families with elementary-aged children (7-12 years)
- A All families with children (0-12 years)

Free programs

All Connecting for Kids programs are free and open to the public. For more information:

Five Ways Black Mothers Can Deal with Racism in Healthcare and Education Systems A

Racism has a negative effect on the well-being of non-white children and their caregivers. To help protect your child from the harmful effects of racial trauma, you must know what the roadblocks are and how to work through them. This program, led by CFK's Family Education Research Analyst Nikki Montgomery, M.A., M.Ed, GPAC, is designed to be a safe space for Black American mothers of children aged 0-12 years to talk about challenges faced in education and healthcare systems. Join Nikki to learn five ways to effectively work towards solutions. This program is for adults only and will not be recorded. If you are interested in learning more about the program, register and you will be contacted by a Connecting for Kids staff member.

Saturday, April 17, 1:00 pm

This program is presented in partnership with the Mother 2 Mother organization.

Social Series: Friendship 411 E

Making and keeping friends requires hundreds of skills and it is easy for a child who struggles to fall behind. Ellen Spear, MA, CCC-SLP, of Lakeshore Speech Therapy, LLC, will teach parents and caregivers strategies to help their child develop and maintain friendships. She will discuss the complicated nature of social skills as it relates to a variety of diagnoses. This program is for adults only and a portion will be recorded.

Tuesday, April 27, 7:00 pm

This program is presented in partnership with Westlake Porter Public Library and is supported by a grant from the Knights of Columbus at St. Ladislas.

Five Things Transracial Families Need to Know to Thrive A

Join Krysia Orlowski, Volunteer Parent Coordinator, and Donikea Austin, Program Manager of Adoption Network Cleveland as they walk us through tips that families formed by transracial adoption need to thrive. The presenters will open the program to Q&A and offer strategies to help with the specific struggles families are experiencing. This program is for adults only and the educational portion of this program will be recorded.

Tuesday, May 4, 7:00 pm

This program is presented in partnership with Westlake Porter Public Library.

Tantrum Tamer Toolbox: Stop the Meltdown Before it Starts! Y

Do you wish you had a kit filled with "tools" you could use to stop meltdowns before they start? Do you want strategies to motivate your child toward positive behavior? Join us each month to learn how to use one of the tools in our Tantrum Tamer Toolbox to help your child aged 18 months – 6 years control behavior and manage emotions. This program is designed for children with or without identified development concerns.

This program offers a safe space to connect with our professional and other families and the educational portion will be recorded.

FREE TOOL KIT: Register to receive instructions to pick up your free tool kit at a participating partner library.

**One free kit per household**

April Tool: Emotion Regulation Tools

Join Ochanya Wells, M.Ed., as she leads you through another tool in the Tantrum Tamer Toolbox. She will explore emotional regulation tools including a calming social story and strategies to help your child cope with anger. She will also answer your questions on a variety of topics, which can be asked during the program or submitted upon registration.

Tuesday, April 20, 7:00 pm

May Tool: Visual Schedules

Join Ochanya Wells, M.Ed., as she leads you through another tool in the Tantrum Tamer Toolbox. She will explore visual schedules including the first, then chart to manage behavior as we transition into summer and need tools to structure the day. She will also answer your questions on a variety of topics, which can be asked during the program or submitted upon registration.

Tuesday, May 11, 7:00 pm

These programs are presented in partnership with Mycom and Cuyahoga County Public Library.

Interactive Workshops

Interactive workshops are designed to help families gain in-depth knowledge on a topic. Register and you will be emailed information about how to join this program using the free Zoom app or by calling in using a toll-free number. When you register for the program, you will get instructions on how to receive your workshop materials. connectingforkids.org/workshops

Torchbearers Advocacy Series for Black and Lantinx Families: Use Your Story to Advocate for Your Child A

Learn to tell your story with power and conviction to get the best results for your child (and for yourself). The Torchbearers Advocacy Series is a workshop for Black and Latinx families of children with health, learning concerns or disabilities who are dealing with bias and unequal outcomes in the systems that serve them. In this workshop series, you will practice telling and adapting your story so your needs are met and so you can be a more powerful advocate for your child. This program is a safe space and will not be recorded.

Fridays June 4, 11 & 18, 7:00 pm

This program is sponsored by Madvocator Educational and Healthcare Advocacy Training and Mother2Mother.

Programs Supporting Families with Concerns About Anxiety or Attention

Helping the Child Who Struggles with Impulsivity E

Is your child struggling with pandemic-related anxiety? Is time at home during quarantine increasing your child's impulsivity? Join Dr. Kimberly Burkhart of Rainbow Babies and Children Hospital as she teaches behavior management strategies. In addition, parents and caregivers will learn ways to teach children to monitor and modify their own behavior. This program will offer a Q&A at the end and specific questions can be submitted upon registration. Join the community of families with an elementary-aged child who struggles with attention and anxiety. This program is for adults only and the educational portion will be recorded.

Thursday, April 15, 7:00-8:00 pm

Helping the Child who Struggles with Transition E

Long summer days, no homework and a break from the routine. Even though your elementary-aged child may be looking forward to summer, the transition from the structure of school can be a rocky one. Join Rob Adams, PsyD, a licensed clinical psychologist at Meghan Barlow and Associates, as he provides practical strategies to make the end of the year a positive, stress-free time for your child. Join the community of families with an elementary-aged child who struggles with attention and anxiety. This program is for adults only and the educational portion will be recorded.

Wednesday, May 5, 7:00-8:00 pm

This program will be offered simultaneously with American Sign Language (ASL) interpretation.

These programs are presented in partnership with Westlake Porter Public Library.

Coffee and Chat

Join our interactive support group and meet other families facing similar struggles. These programs are a safe space and will not be recorded. Register and you will be emailed information about how to join the program using the free Zoom app or by calling in using a toll-free number. connectingforkids.org/support

Music for Mental Health: Coping Skills for Caregivers A

Join us this month as the music therapist focuses on coping with seasons of stress and difficult times both at home and in society. Come and connect with other families as we use music to cope with our ever-present struggles. Attendees will listen to live music and engage in discussions, group songwriting and other fun music experiences.

Wednesday, April 21, 7:00pm

How to Use Self Compassion to Deal with Worry and Stress A

(Families of Children with Complex Needs)

Join Kelsey Jager, Ph.D., LPCC-S, of Kenneth A DeLuca & Associates as she facilitates this private session to help deal with feelings of overwhelming worry and stress. Dr. Jager will lead the group in a self-compassion meditation. Register and we will send you a free pocket mirror! *One mirror per household*

Thursday, April 29, 8:30 pm

Talking To Others About Your LGBTQ+ Child A

Join Kristen Pepera, MEd, LPCC-S, and Lisa Pepera, MEd, LPCC-S, of Colors+, as well as the community of other families to discuss gender nonconformity. This month our presenters will explore how to be an advocate for your child and prepare for difficult conversations and situations with others. We will also discuss the article titled, "Talking to Grandparents and Other Adult Family Members".

Tuesday, May 18, 7:00 pm

Connecting for Kids provides families with resources so they can make an informed decision for their child.

SPRING PROGRAMS: WITH MY CHILD

Music Therapy & More<sup>SM</sup> V

This program is designed for families and their children (ages 0-6 years) who are struggling in an area of development. Join us virtually or in-person for a hands-on program designed to teach families how to use music to improve their child's academic, motor, communication and social skills as well as behavior. Programs are led by a Board-Certified Music Therapist. Siblings (ages 0-6 years) may attend. Families may only attend one session per month. connectingforkids.org/music

Virtual Zoom Programs

These live, virtual programs using Zoom work best for children who are used to interacting with a phone or computer screen.

With Zoom you can view the music therapist live and participate in real time. Families can actively engage with the music therapist, talk to each other and enjoy the program together.

Register online for the session of your choice and you will be emailed information about how to join the program running the free Zoom app on your phone or laptop. During the session, the music therapist will use common household materials you should have available at home to have fun while using music to improve academic, communication, motor and social skills as well as behavior.

Saturday, April 10, 10:30 am

Friday, April 23, 10:30 am

These programs are supported by the residents of Cuyahoga County through a grant from Cuyahoga Arts and Culture and presented in partnership with Westlake Porter Public Library.

Virtual Music Therapy & More On Demand Videos V

Connecting for Kids collaborates with local music therapists to produce Music Therapy & More On Demand videos you can play anytime. Videos are available in both English and Spanish.

Get your free kit that will give you everything you need to watch and complete the activities included in the videos. April kits will be available starting on April 11 and the May kits will be available starting on May 9.

Pick up your kits on a first-come, first-served basis at the Westlake Porter Public Library at either the Youth Services desk or drive-through window. Or, if you prefer, a kit will be mailed to your residence if you fill out the form on our website (connectingforkids.org/MusicOnDemand). Please note that mail can be delayed due to circumstances outside of our control.

These kits are created in partnership with Westlake Porter Public Library, and supported in part by the residents of Cuyahoga County through a public grant from Cuyahoga Arts & Culture.

There are lots of ways to connect with CFK!
