

The story of your child's creation.

Ms. Galbreath and Yehudit showed their 5th grade students how different and similar they are through a poster exercise spread out in 5 different places around the classroom.

The story of your child's creation.

And- Here are some pictures of grade 5 from the first two days of school.

