

The story of your child's creation.

Hakarat HaTov

The Hebrew term for gratitude is הַקָּרֶת הַטּוֹב (Hakarat HaTov), which means "recognizing the good."

- To Mr. Angelo, your hours of care for the CJDS gardens over the summer helped to make everything look so pretty and ready for the first day of school!
- To the staff and faculty for their staying late many days this week to make the classrooms and school beautiful and ready for our students. prepare and clean the CJDS classrooms was beyond every expectation. Thank you for taking such pride in what you do.
- To CJDS Business Manager (and grandparent) Mark Mitzman, for always stepping up to help the CJDS team - way beyond the business office.
- To Kerry Selfinger for her utter dedication and support to helping every system in the school get launched this year. Thank you for your 10 hour days.
- To Lauren McDaniel for volunteering her time and love by bringing face painting to our opening day carnival.

Lifecycles

Have a life cycle to share with your CJDS community? Please be in touch HERE to share your news.