FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASESALISBURY BANK OFFERS FREE SEMINAR ON BUYING YOUR FIRST HOME AND CREDIT SCORES

Lakeville, CT – June 11, 2019 – Salisbury Bank is offering a free seminar with important information on buying your first home and credit scores.

In this informative seminar, we will discuss the basics every first time homebuyer needs to know about securing a mortgage including:

- How much will I need to save for a down payment?
- What documents are needed to apply for a loan?
- Do I qualify for a mortgage?

We will also answer questions about credit scores:

- What is a credit score?
- How is a credit score determined and what is a “good” score?
- What can I do to improve my credit?

Presenter: Spring Burke, Vice President, Mortgage Advisor, NMLS #597840

Spring has been in the banking industry since she was 15, when she was part of a work-study program for school. Her ‘official’ career was launched in 2001 at Canaan National Bank, which was acquired by Salisbury Bank in 2004. In the ensuing years she has remained an important part of the Salisbury Bank family, where she has been a top performer in mortgage originations since 2010. Spring has been named a Five Star Mortgage Professional five years in a row according to the Connecticut Magazine.
