O'Leary retires from Litchfield Bancorp Board of Directors

(Litchfield, CT) - On April 24, 2019 James P. O'Leary was honored as he retired from Litchfield Bancorp's Board of Directors after 28 years. At a dinner held at Tavern off the Green in the Litchfield Inn, Mr. O'Leary was presented with a plaque of appreciation from Litchfield Bancorp, as well as a citation from the State of Connecticut acknowledging that while on the Board of Directors, his leadership helped Litchfield Bancorp continue his legacy of providing quality banking opportunities and commend his commitment and dedication to the communities it serves.

In addition to serving on LBC's Board of Directors, Mr. O'Leary has served on many other boards, among them, 15 years on the Connecticut Mutual Holding Company, 12 years as Goshen's First Selectman, 9 years on the Northwest Connecticut Community Foundation and for the past 45 years, continues to serve as a member of the Goshen Fire Company.

"In honor of Jim's dedication, commitment and service, a $1,000 donation from our recently established Litchfield Bancorp Directors Advised Fund will be made to an organization of his choosing. This donation in Jim's name will be the inaugural donation from this enduring fund," Mr. Villanova, President & CEO of Litchfield Bancorp said during the presentation.

In addition to directors and employees, his wife Barbara and two of his three daughters were able to attend. We wish Jim many more happy years with his family during retirement.
