FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Litchfield Bancorp welcomes Christine Bascetta-Gath as SVP, Commercial Lending Officer

Thomas Villanova, President & CEO of Litchfield Bancorp is pleased to announce the appointment of Christine Bascetta-Gath as Senior Vice President and Commercial Lending Officer for the bank, as of December 10, 2018.

Christine Bascetta-Gath began her banking career in 2010 and since then she has worked in multiple areas of commercial banking. Prior to Litchfield Bancorp, Christine was Vice President & Commercial/Wholesale Banker at United Bank. Prior to that, Christine was responsible for determining the lending needs and banking services for existing and potential customers, as well as aiding in a $30MM loan growth over a two year span at Torrington Savings Bank. Christine graduated from the University of Chicago with a MA degree and a BA from Clark University. She is also a graduate of Connecticut School of Finance and Management.

"We are pleased to have Christine join our team here at Litchfield Bancorp." Thomas Villanova said, in regards to the hiring of Christine Bascetta-Gath. "Her experience and talents will be a great addition to our already outstanding group of lenders."
